Hello,

This case is in the wrong county and the wrong name. Myself and Linda Christine were married from July of 2016 until March of 2019, when she had a domestic altercation with my oldest son and I asked her to leave. I gave Linda 60 days to leave and after nearly 90 days II helped here move a large portion of her belonging to her new trailer in Paso Robles because no one would help her and I could not live under the same house with her any longer. The following week I tried to deliver her the rest of her belongings that she abandoned along with her cat and sons dog. After numerous attempts to reunite Linda with her belonging that she left behind, in February of 2021 my son Keith needed a place to stay so he emptied Linda's abandoned belongings from my patio to live there. I told Keith to take these items to the Goodwill or dump as most was garbage left behind, but out of some sense of kindness my son drove her belonging all the way to Paso Robles and opened a storage space in his name and Linda's.

JAN 17 2022

After the completion of our divorce on 3-23-22, Linda's legal last name became D'Alora as can be clearly seen in the Divorce Documents Included, which means this case is filed under an alias and should be dismissed. The divorce documents also say that that storage is her responsibility.

Regards

Frederick George

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.
